October 2008

Volume 22 No 7

Feeling cheated by not having had much of a summer with little sun (or that is how it has felt) autumn seems to have arrived with beautiful sunny days together with the crisp coolness of morning and evening. Soon, no doubt, I shall be lighting the fires and finding my winter clothes. The blackberries are ripe and I have already picked a number which are heading for the freezer and ultimately apple pies etc. The harvest has been gathered, for better for worse, and the year is completing its cycle although some of the birds seem to be weather disorientated as the late house martin leavers have, as I write, still not left and there are some very young pheasant chicks wandering around the garden—a very late brood indeed. The horse chestnut trees are being attacked by a moth that causes the leaves to turn brown and fall earlier as well as causing the conkers to be smaller much to the disappointment of the conker tournaments, I imagine. The suffering trees can be seen all over the place.

With autumn comes a certain amount of work in the garden and there is good guidance on page 13 with regard to the law and the trimming of roadside hedges and trees. There are one or two quite dangerous places along the roads in the villages where hedges have not been kept cut back and obscure vision. When a motorist cannot see round a corner all road users are at risk if they are trying to turn across the flow of onward traffic. Just as cow parsley, grass etc is mown during summer to aid safety and visibility so the hedges should be trimmed back once their fast growth period and the nesting season is over.

GREAT BROMLEY VILLAGE HALL CHARITY TRUSTEES

The Village Hall committee met on 22nd July and were scheduled to meet again on Tuesday 23rd September.

We are now into autumn and the summer holidays are left far behind. Most groups and clubs are again enjoying the facilities that the Hall offer for their activities. Why not join them? We have a Badminton Club on Monday evenings, Mens Club on Tuesday evenings, Carpet Bowls on Wednesday evening except the first Wednesday when the Women's Institute meet. Usually the Carpet Bowls Club will meet on the Thursday evening that week. A Band has the Hall Lounge for a practice session on Friday evenings.

During the day time, the Playgroup are open for pre-school childcare on Monday mornings, Wednesday morning and afternoon, Thursday mornings, whilst Scallywags, a parent and young child group, meet on Friday mornings. On the third Thursday afternoon, the Friendship

Club for the over 50s hold their meetings.

Other regular users of the Hall's various areas are the Parish Council, the Village Hall committee, the Royal Air Force Association, British Gas, also Colchester & District Poultry Club. Many other people hire the Hall's facilities as required for their meetings, parties and entertainment.

During the spring, summer and autumn months, the Cricket Club is very active adjacent to the Hall on the cricket pitch and in the pavilion. They also keep the grass areas well mown for which we appreciate their efforts in presenting a clean and tidy local environment. The Parish Council, in conjunction with the District Council and Parker's Nurseries, have provided the lovely floral tubs outside the hall and elsewhere in the village.

Have you booked your tickets for the Musical Murder Mystery Evening, 'The Golden Girl', at Gt Bromley village hall on Saturday, 18th October? If not, then why not give Fred Nicholls a ring on 01206 230688 and secure your seat for this special event. The price of £13.50 includes supper and a wonderful evening's entertainment.

The Christmas Fayre at the village hall will be on Saturday, 6th December, the funds raised to be shared equally between the Village Hall and Women's Institute. Have you ordered your Christmas cards yet, it won't be long before you need them!

To book the Hall, contact Mrs Lynda Allam on 01206 230375 who will advise on availability and cost.

GREAT BROMLEY HANDY BOOK

I shall be updating shortly the Bromley Messenger Handy Book for 2009 and would be grateful for any suggestions by way of additional information you would like to see and also for any amendments, that you know of, to the information given in the last issue that need to be made.

Thank you.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On 3rd September Mr Brian Piccolo came along to tell us about his career as a Couturier for 40 years. He stated at the age of 13 years by asking his mother to let him make her a blouse. When he had finished, it fitted perfectly! He eventually attended Art School, then learnt his trade and worked in London.

He married in 1967 and became self-employed as a Couturier with a shop in Crouch Street, Colchester and also in Frinton from 1976 until 1982. Brian designed and made beautiful dresses with or without jackets, mostly hand stitched. He managed to design and make one dress per day but taking about three days for a wedding dress according to what was required.

He brought along a clothes rail full of his designs, told us about each one and then let us hand them around. He even designed a dress for the Lady Mayoress of London amongst other dignitaries. Every design, the beautiful fabrics, colours and Brian's needlework were all exquisite.

Our speaker for October is Maureen Scollen giving a talk on 'Women's Police Force in Essex'. If you feel you would like to come along on Wednesday, 1st October at 7.30pm in Great Bromley Village Hall, you will be most welcome.

WE NEARLY WON!

Eight willing members recently ventured to Langham to take part in the area heat of the Essex W.I. Quiz. Subjects covered included The Written Word, What the 'B' do you mean?, A Feast of Questions and The Numbers Game which made us puzzle when to play the Joker! Twelve teams enjoyed a well-organised, fun evening with some taxing questions and excellent D.I.Y. nibbles. Despite a slow start, we eventually finished (surprise, surprise!) a very close second to Fingringhoe.

BELLRINGERS TRIBUTE TO 60 YEARS OF GREAT BROMLEY WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

A Quarter Peal was rung on the bells of St George's Church, Great Bromley on Friday 29th August to commemorate sixty years of the W.I. in the village, by members of the local band: Derek Bloyce, David Wenden, Philip Erith and Sue Orriss (current W.I. President) together with Paul and Ann Bray of the North East District of Change Ringers. 1320 changes of St Clements Bob Minor were rung in 44 minutes.

When the W.I. was formed in May 1948, the annual subscription was 3s 6d (17½p), the village hall cost 12s 6d (62½p) and refreshments were 3d (1¼p). There was still rationing after World War II and any event involving food had to be carefully planned with all members contributing from their rations. Later they were pleased to receive a Food Parcel from Shamva W.I. in Rhodesia (now Zimbabwe)! Early meetings included talks on soft slipper making, rug making and thrift and films on poultry sexing and Old Wives Tales! How times have changed!

GREAT BROMLEY POST OFFICE

I'm glad to say that our Post Office survived the recent cut backs and is now going from strength to strength.

From 1st October you will be able to get your Euros on demand as we will now be holding a small stock. All other currencies, if ordered before midday, arrive the following day.

More and more people are using this service as it is commission free.

With the cash machines so open to fraud, it is handy to know that you can get cash, using your bank card, at the Post Office and it is much safer. This service is available for most national banks.

So please continue to use your village post office and we will make sure that it survives the next round of cuts. As they say 'Use it or lose it'.

THANKS

Thank you, thank you to all of you who supported the concert in St George's Church on Saturday, 13th September.

I think I can safely say it was a fabulous success. On a beautiful autumnal evening we were treated to a fine and varied selection of music.

The 36 members of the Essex Police Choir presented an entertaining programme which included well known golden oldies such as 'To Music' and 'Amazing Grace' as well as more modern toe tappers from shows such as the Lion King and Miss Saigon. The men of the Police Choir gave a wonderful rendition of 'Gwahoddiaid' which received resounding applause.

The Cavender Singers from Clacton were guest artists for the evening and their choice of music was most enjoyable, the audience particularly enjoying their arrangements for 'One Voice' and 'My Heart will go on' from the film Titanic.

Delicious refreshments were provided by Barbara and her team, with the barmen being particularly hardworking and efficient. Thank you very much.

Over £1000 was raised during the evening. This will help tremendously towards the general running costs of St George's Church.

Thank you all. There was a fantastic warm community spirit throughout the evening. Here's to the next evening of song and music.

CARPET BOWLS

The final result of the summer league table was Great Bromley 39 points and opposing teams 51 points finishing somewhere in the middle.

We start off the winter league fixtures with a home match against Little Clacton on 8th October.

JOE CANHAM

On the day of writing he, our most senior member, is celebrating his 99th birthday. We have all wished him well and expect he will enjoy his family gathering. We hope he will have many more happy days. Talking of birthdays, years and years ago one of our late Rectors always maintained that we only have one birthday and that all the so-called 'birthdays' are anniversaries of the day we were born. A very profound thought. Doesn't sound quite so cosy though, does it? Could this be the first P.C.? Perhaps it started right here in Great Bromley!! Good thing or not? - a matter of opinion.

FROM THE PAST

The Manors of Little Bromley, 1848
There have always been two Manors at Little Bromley, namely Little Bromley Hall or Church Hall and Braham or Breame Hall.

In 1848 J Ambrose was lord of the manors but most of the land was owned by people such as Carrington Nunn, E & F Norman, J Page, J Bigsby, E Dennis, H Wrinch and a few smaller owners who held their properties either by free or copyhold.

Carrington Nunn was resident at The Hall. He had one of the best packs of hounds in the county and was a celebrated fox hunter.

Carrington Nunn had a school built in 1849. This building was discontinued when the County Council built a new school in 1906. It flourished until 1969.

WORKING GROUP REPORTS

WG 5 – Hazardous Roads, Trees and Hedges

I am approached sometimes by parishioners requesting guidance on the management of roadside hedges. Two common questions are: how far from the highway do hedges need to be trimmed and what are the rules concerning removal of hedgerows (even if they are to be replanted).

Roadside Hedge Trimming

Essex County Council advises that landowners have a legal obligation to ensure that their roadside hedges do not encroach within the highway 'envelope'. Given that the highway boundary varies in width from location to location, it is difficult to generalise as to how far landowner's hedges should be cut back, but the following general guidance from ECC may be helpful:

Roadside verges should have a clear minimum width of 0.45 metres at all times from the road edge. This means that hedges should be cut back at least one metre from the road edge to allow for vegetative growth.

Hedges should be cut back regularly such that there is no overgrowth of metalled footways. This includes brambles during the growing season.

Trees overhanging the road should allow a minimum clearance of 5.1 metres above the road surface, including on the road edge/kerb line.

There should be a minimum clearance of 2.4 metres above footways.

Where the highway boundary is more than 1 metre from the road edge, then hedges may need to be cut back more severely. A useful guide is the position of road signs, which are properly surveyed-in when installed. If a road sign is obscured, then almost always the hedge is encroaching on highway property and should be cut back.

Hedgerow Removal

In recent years hedgerows have been given much greater protection by successive governments and there are now legal requirements clearly laid down which must be followed by landowners when considering hedgerow removal. This applies even when the hedgerow is to be replanted. Guidance on hedgerows can be obtained from Tendring District Council (Mr Clive Dawson - Tree and Landscape Officer – 01255 686868 Ext 6155) or by looking at the relevant national legislation on the internet – The Hedgerows Regulations 1997 published by DEFRA.

The law is complex in this area and advice from the local authority (TDC) should be sought before removing any hedgerow. Initial discussions with the local authority will determine whether the hedgerow in question is subject to the provisions of the hedgerows regulations. If it is, the law now directs that landowners should formally notify the local authority of their intention to remove a hedgerow, by submitting a hedgerow removal notice before any work is undertaken. The local authority will consider the request and notify the landowner whether removal may take place. Where local authority consent is not granted, the applicant has the right to appeal to the Secretary of State in a similar way as for the planning system.

In very general terms, the hedgerows regulations apply to hedges over 20 metres in length (including gateways, gaps, trees etc) or hedgerows which join or are adjacent to another hedgerow. However, Clive Dawson at TDC is very knowledgeable and helpful and will provide sound advice in answer to any query on hedges or trees in the District.

FROM THE DOCTORS' SURGERY

News from Great Bentley surgery

I don't suppose that anyone will be particularly surprised that the disease of the month is flu. As ever at this time of the year, the nurses are emptying fridges, sharpening their needles (at least metaphorically) and warming their hands, ready to administer and record something over 2,000 flu jabs in six or seven weeks. Get your sleeves rolled up ready please!

Flu is a really nasty disease which is caused by a range of influenza viruses. Every year, the Department of Health and the drug companies have to work out which varieties of the virus are likely to cause problems in the coming winter and the vaccine is developed specifically to target them. The good news is that there may be a jab soon to cover all varieties, including Bird Flu, and which in theory would only need a booster every few years. Unfortunately though, the virus keeps mutating – think of Asian Flu and Spanish Flu, which killed so many millions after the Great War, as well as Bird Flu, and you begin to wonder how long the “one size fits all” jab will actually be effective.

People sometimes claim to be suffering from flu when all they have is a heavy cold. Both are characterised by a cough, sore throat and blocked nose. However, flu is much worse, probable additional symptoms being a high fever, headache and aching body, together with a shivery feeling and extreme tiredness. Generally, people don't get up and go shopping, to work or down the pub when they have flu. They can't!

Normally, you will recover from flu within a week or two. However, for some people it can be a really serious and dangerous problem. Flu can lead to complications like bronchitis or pneumonia and anyone whose immune system is already weakened, such as the elderly and people suffering from a condition such as diabetes or chronic respiratory, heart or kidney disease are particularly vulnerable.

Flu kills some 4,000 people in this country every winter and accounts for between 500,000 and a million deaths world-wide annually. It isn't something to be taken lightly.

Even the government recognises this and funds a free flu jab each year for anyone aged 65 or over or who suffers from the chronic problems mentioned above. Let's face it – it wouldn't be free unless it was genuinely important and worth having.

We are now booking appointments for flu jabs. If you think you might be entitled to one, please ask at Reception. Clinics arranged so far are:

Saturday, 4th October 9.00am – 1.00pm
Tuesday, 7th October 2.00pm – 4.00pm
Wednesday, 8th October 2.00pm – 4.00pm
Tuesday, 21st October 2.00pm – 4.00pm
Wednesday, 22nd October 2.00pm – 4.00pm

There are also clinics specially for Little Clacton patients on 14th and 28th October.

Please book early to ensure that you don't miss out on the best free insurance policy you are ever likely to be offered. It could save you a nasty couple of weeks – or even worse – later in the winter.

The last word on flu for now, I promise. Despite any old-wives' tales that you might hear, you cannot get flu from the jab. It is a dead virus. A few people do end up with some very mild symptoms for a couple of days, but they are definitely not the real thing – unless you had already caught it elsewhere.

Finally for this month, we have managed to find a replacement for Molly Starling (not that she can ever really be replaced, but you'll understand what I mean.) Her name is Sarah Shelly and she is just in the process of moving to the area, partly to be close to relatives already living in Clacton.

Sarah is new to General Practice, but is an experienced secretary who in recent years has been working in school offices, which fitted in well with bringing up her four children. She now feels ready to move back into the rat-race (- for a rest from the four children, I expect.) She is also a trained first aider, which is really useful from our point of view, and used to be involved with guides and scouts.

We are looking forward to welcoming Sarah and hope that she will be really happy here. We are sure that she will fit in well and quickly become an important part of the team.

She said he asked a lot of personal questions, such as her D. O. B & her mother's maiden name. He already knew her full name, address & phone no. She asked the caller to put all the info in the post. SCAM NOTICE

Notice on car (not a joke)

Just last weekend on Friday night we parked in a public parking area. As we drove away I noticed a sticker on the rear window of the car. When I took it off after I got home, it was a receipt for petrol.

Luckily my friend told me not to stop as it could be someone waiting for me to get out of the car. Then we received this email yesterday:

WARNING FROM POLICE

BEWARE OF PAPER ON THE BACK WINDOW OF YOUR VEHICLE--NEW WAY TO DO CAR JACKINGS (NOT A JOKE)'

You walk across the car parking , unlock your car and get inside. You start the engine and shift into Reverse. When you look into the rear view mirror to back out of your parking space, you notice a piece of paper stuck to the middle of the rear window. So, you shift into neutral, unlock your doors, and jump out of your car to remove that paper (or whatever it is) that is obstructing your view. When you reach the back of your car that is when the carjacker appear out of nowhere, jump into your car and take off. They practically mow you down as they speed off in your car. And guess what, ladies? I bet your purse is still in the car. So now the carjacker has your car, your home address, your money, and your keys. Your home and your whole identity are now compromised! BEWARE OF THIS NEW SCHEME THAT IS NOW BEING USED. So, if you see a piece of paper stuck to your back window, just drive away. Remove the paper later.

Lights On

Visit www.essex.police.uk/lightson to find out how you can make your home more secure. This autumn Essex Police want every resident in the county to make their home as secure as possible to help us reduce burglaries.

Officers will be dropping leaflets in homes that look unoccupied and attractive to thieves. If you receive a leaflet through your front doors it means you need to take further steps to protect your home.

New recruits wanted by Essex Police

Essex Police is recruiting for a new intake of regular police officers. Potential applicants need to complete and return the application form by Friday, October 10, 2008.

A limited number of application packs are available by calling the Recruitment Hotline on 01245 452277. You can also apply online by visiting www.policecouldyou.co.uk from September 1. Please note that printed versions (PDF) of the online packs will not be accepted.

TRY THIS TEST!

According to Anderson Consulting Worldwide, around 90% of the professionals they tested got all the questions wrong, but many pre-schoolers got several correct answers. Anderson Consulting says this conclusively disproves that most professionals have the brains of a four-year-old.

How do you put a giraffe into a refrigerator?

Correct answer: Open the refrigerator, put in the giraffe and close the door.

This question tests whether you tend to do simple things in an overly complicated way.

How do you put an elephant into a refrigerator?

Did you say: Open the refrigerator, put in the elephant, and close the refrigerator? Wrong answer.

Correct answer: Open the refrigerator, take out the giraffe, put in the elephant and close the door.

This tests your ability to think through the repercussions of your previous actions.

The Lion King is hosting an animal conference. All the animals attend except one. Which animal does not attend?

Correct answer: The Elephant. It is in the refrigerator. You just put him there.

This tests your memory.

Okay, even if you did not answer the first three questions correctly, you still have one more chance to show your true abilities.

There is a river you must cross but it is used by crocodiles, and you do not have a boat. How do you manage it?

Correct answer: You jump in the river and swim across. Have you not been listening? All the crocodiles are attending the animal conference.

This tests whether you learn quickly from your mistakes!

How did you do?
