

OUT AND ABOUT

Once again this month there has been much activity with the current ongoing projects within the village. However further help is still needed for future projects. Are you able to help and make a contribution to your community and enhance your village?

On page 11 the parish council is asking for suggestions for a community event to be held in the village probably in 2009. At one time a fete, carnival and pantomime all used to be held annually for many years, until they folded for one reason or another. In addition there were big one-off events such as the Teddy Bear's Picnic and the Mad Hatter's Tea Party which brought together, for fun and games, many people from within Great and Little Bromley as well as from far beyond and it would be wonderful once again to have a community event. So please put on your thinking caps and inundate the Clerk to the parish council with your ideas.

Your editor has begun a project to record the memories from inhabitants of Great and Little Bromley on life in the villages during the 20th century. This is going to be quite a large task and one that has already started. A group came together over refreshments before Christmas to record their memories regarding entertainment in the villages. This is just the start of various themes we want to cover. It was a fascinating and jolly morning with stories flowing non-stop. The addition of old photographs added even more colour to the yarns. Having once collated the material, of which there is obviously masses, the intention is to turn all the information into a publication.

Time is pressing to obtain the older memories but what a mine of local legend and historical information we will have by the end.

On page 13 you will see some of the volunteers (you may have spotted them recently on a Saturday morning) who have been working hard planting hedges and trees around and about which in the years to come will add to the beauty of our villages and countryside. The litter picking morning on 15th March will further transform our lanes and byways and who knows, we could enter the Best Kept Village Competition and do well.

One last request, please let me know by 17th March of any amendments or changes that may be needed for the cover pages (organisations, associations, meeting times etc). For financial reasons the cover is only altered once a year and a charge is made for any alterations at any other time. I am always grateful for amendments to be sent sooner than the deadline date so that I am not doing it all at the last moment should there be a query. Thank you.

KITCHEN CORNER

If there are any Seville oranges still around, they make a good sauce to serve with fish; Quantities are for 6 portions of salmon fillet, red mullet or similar fish.

One large shallot, finely diced, the juice of one Seville orange and one sweet orange. Place these in a small pan and simmer over medium heat until the juice has reduced to 2 tablespoons. Add 2 tbsp double cream, salt and fresh ground pepper and set aside until nearly ready to serve. Cook the fish in your usual way - either grill, fry or bake - then keep warm while you finish the sauce. Return the reduced orange juice and cream to the boil. As soon as it thickens slightly lower the heat to a simmer. Have ready 200g cold unsalted butter and cut into cubes. Begin whisking these into the sauce a few at a time, adding more as they melt and amalgamate. You should finish up with a smooth thick sauce. Serve at once with the hot fish. You cannot reheat this one - it will split!

FEBRUARY GARDENING TIPS

Buddleias: March is the time to prune buddleias. Cut hard back to a strong bud.

Early flowering plants such as plums, pears, apples and cherries all need fertiliser at this time of the year to aid strong flowering and growth. I use national growmore.

If you are going to plant anemones, soak the tubers in a saucer of lukewarm water for 24 hours. They will double in size then plant in a well drained spot in the garden.

If you have nest boxes up now is the time to take them down and clean them out before the birds take up residence.

Start your seed potatoes off by placing them in egg containers with the shoots uppermost, place under the staging in the greenhouse or in the garden shed. Plant one row of first earlies now. When they are through plant the next row then you will have new potatoes over a longer period.

Update on my fig tree, the green buds are just beginning to show.

CARPET BOWLS

The match result figures are not very good this month. Of the 3 league matches played over the Christmas period, we lost 6-2 to Brightlingsea away, a drawn game with Clacton-on-Sea at home and lost 6-2 to Silver Dawn away.

Essex County Singles Championship

On 13th January at Braintree, Great Bromley entered four players. Each player had three games in their particular group. Richard Bates managed 1 win and 2 defeats. Pat Petchey missed winning all his 3 games by just 1 shot, Andrew Childs also lost just one 8-5. Ron Copp was runner-up in his group and just failed to qualify for the next round. The number of shots is significant. They were happy with their day and had a good time.

Sunday 20th January saw Andrew playing for Essex again at Needham Market against Suffolk. This was a first time ever win for Essex away to Suffolk. They scored 19 points to Suffolk's 17. Andrew's team won 2 out of 3 games and they had the best overall score of the 6 Essex teams.

Brumbella Charity Day

It seems such a short time since the last one, but my diary tells me it certainly is a year. The money raised this year will be sent to a rehabilitation fund for local paratroops. Not widely advertised but very worthy. We will be very grateful to our usual local supporters this year. Thank you.

GREAT BROMLEY VILLAGE HALL CHARITY TRUSTEES

The Village Hall committee held its first meeting of 2008 on 22nd January with all members, except one, present. The chairman, Fred Nicholls, welcomed those present and introduced Tracy Griffiths who was duly co-opted onto the committee.

The Chairman and Secretary said they had taken up the option of attending a Rural Community Council of Essex all day workshop - 'Manage your Future' - at Lindsell Village Hall in early last December. Subjects discussed were the Role of Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer (Jan Cole), Funding Bids (Beverley Davies), Constitutions and Legal Structures (Sandy Adirondack) and Undertaking a Risk Assessment (George Whittle). A buffet lunch was provided with over 25 delegates present. A very useful day with another workshop scheduled for 21st February 2008.

The Rural Community Council of Essex have also introduced a Hallmark Standards Scheme in which village and community halls can be judged against a national quality management scheme that rewards good practise in management and administration. There are three levels of award: Hall committees can apply starting with level one, which we have done.

Our apologies to those of you who were unfortunate enough to experience heating problems at the hall during January due to the boiler locking out when attempting to run. The problem has been dealt with and the heating should be back, on demand, without further human intervention.

On Saturday, 15th March at 7.30pm the 'Nostalgia' Big Band will make a return visit for you to listen and dance the evening away. Tickets may be booked with Beryl Hurst on 01206 230578. Hurry, they are going fast!

Also on Saturday 10th May at 7.30pm, there will be an evening of entertainment with Angie Diggins at the village hall following on from her shows at other venues in the UK. Tickets may be reserved with Beryl Hurst on 01206 230578.

To book the hall, contact Mrs Lynda Allam on 01206 230375 who will advise on availability and cost. The Hall may be seen on www.greatbromley.org.uk and click on "village hall".

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Sue Gambling and Marianne Dow from ASDA came along to our February meeting to tell us about the company.

In 1920, the Stockdale family opened a shop in Leeds, Yorkshire, which is where their headquarters remains today. When the Asquith brothers joined up with them sometime later, ASDA became a limited company. By 1984 the company had increased to 100 supermarkets and began to open stores in southern England.

Sue and Marianne then invited us to ask them questions on any aspects of ASDA which they answered fully. An interesting evening.

Our next meeting is on Wednesday 5th March at 7.30pm in the village hall. We will be having a 'Denman Debrief' following on from our recent group visit to Denman College in January.

June Willgress

College Capers!

Did you have a go at making a Celtic Knot heart card for Valentine's Day as shown in last month's Bromley Messenger? This is just one of the designs introduced to seven members of the local W.I. when they visited Denman College in Oxfordshire in early January. Other delights on the Design for Crafts course included a King Solomon's Knot, a Josephine Knot, a Fish Entrail Knot (where do they get these names?), Border designs and a Celtic Cross, followed by Trefoils, a Mobius Strip and infilling as shown on early English manuscripts. The results were quite impressive.

Not to be outdone, the other five members in the group enjoyed Soft Shaded Embroidery - Long and Short stitch. This sounds very formal but they had a lot of fun and were soon producing beautifully embroidered flowers, leaves and bees and have become really enthusiastic about the craft.

The whole visit was superb, with comfortable accommodation, good food, a friendly atmosphere and new people to meet (not all W.I. members!). We have our Awards for All grant to thank for all this and shall be sharing some of our skills in the village.

So why not come along to our meeting on Wednesday 5th March at 7.30pm in the village hall to our Denman Debrief and learn something new? You'll be most welcome.

Proposed Agricultural Reservoir at Slough Farm, Great Bromley

You are invited to attend a public meeting arranged by Great Bromley Parish Council on Thursday 13th March at 6.30 pm in Great Bromley Village Hall to discuss the agricultural irrigation reservoir which it is proposed to construct on land at Slough Farm (off Carrington's Road).

Representatives of the four farmers who will use the reservoir, together with the planning agent, will present their proposals and answer questions.

Great Bromley Community Event 2009

The Parish Council is considering the feasibility of an annual village community event in Great Bromley – as from 2009.

There have been such events in the past and the village appraisal suggested that a summer fete held on the village hall grounds might be welcomed.

An annual community event might have the following aims: the promotion of a community spirit; the provision of a day's enjoyment for residents of all ages; to break-even financially and possibly raise funds for community projects or local good causes.

The Parish Council would like to know whether or not residents think that an annual community event is in principle a good idea. And if it is, what form should such an event take?

The Parish Council would like to hear your views. Please either email or post your comments to the Clerk or complete the questionnaire on the council's website (www.essexinfo.net/gbpc)

WORKING GROUP REPORTS

Working Group 9: Closed Cemetery

The start of the new hedge planting alongside the closed cemetery has commenced. The first task was the removal of the old parts of the hedge that had become overgrown with ivy and numerous self sown trees. At the same time a large yew stump was removed from within the closed cemetery. We are very grateful to Ken Robinson for his skilful work in removing the tree stumps.

The church meadow project continues, the proposed plans will have been discussed with the school and the church and a final agreement will hopefully have taken place. The working group believes that they have taken into account the views of the school, the church and any parishioners who have cared to voice their opinions in developing the plan. We have tried very hard to come up with the best solution to everybody's needs.

We have some new offers of help with the closed cemetery if anybody else is interested in coming along on Saturday mornings starting the first Saturday in April you will be most welcome.

Fred Nicholls

WG 13 – Tree Planting

Thanks to all those volunteers who turned out on 2nd February to plant trees in Mary Lane North, Badley Hall Road and on the footpath between these roads. A total of 33 semi-mature trees were planted, including oak, common lime and sweet chestnut, bringing the total number of trees planted by WG9 in the village this year to 219. Other sites at which trees have been planted include Brook Street, Parsons Hill, the 'Park' off Parsons Hill, the footpath between Harwich Road and Moreham's Hall and ex-orchard land at Burnt Heath.

Suggestions for suitable locations in the village for further tree planting would be gratefully received - please contact me on 01206 250263.

WG11 - Litter Picking and Village 'Spring Clean'

PICK UP THE PIECES. The village spring clean day is to be held on 15th March and you are invited to join in the event between 10.00am and 12 noon. Can you spare the time to lend a hand? We had a very good response last November and hope for an even better one this time!

You will need some gardening gloves and appropriate clothing. Some high vis jackets and litter picks will be available, but do feel free to bring along your own if you have them. However much (or little) time you can spare, join the team leaders in the car parks of either the Bromley Cross, the Old Courthouse or the Snooty Fox at 10.00am.

Please note that, for insurance purposes, volunteers should be fit and be between the ages of 15 and 75 years. Under 15s are encouraged to participate but parental permission and appropriate supervision will be required.

FROM THE GT BENTLEY DOCTORS' SURGERY

It's always flattering when people think you know it all or can do everything, but just occasionally the doctors here have to admit that someone else knows best. A good example of this is dentistry, as we have had to explain to several people recently.

I'm afraid that if you have a problem with your teeth or gums, you really do have to see a dentist rather than a GP. Even if you just think you need pain-killers for toothache or antibiotics for a gum infection, please contact a dentist rather than us. If you see a GP, he or she should always explain that they aren't the right person to deal with your problem and send you away. You will probably have caused yourself a longer wait than necessary by trying the surgery first.

A dentist will probably tell you that after spending five long years qualifying, they are bound to know an awful lot more about teeth, gums and all associated workings than a GP does.

They certainly grumble about doctors who do try to intervene in dental problems, saying that proper treatment might have been delayed or that the root causes (no apologies for the pun) of the patient's problem have not been properly investigated.

So, if you have a dental problem, please ring your dentist. If you haven't got a dentist and have difficulties registering with one, a lady called Kathy Flegg at the Primary Care Trust will be glad to help you. She can be contacted on 01206 288582. Additionally, if you need a dentist urgently outside normal hours, Harmoni who provide the out of hours GP service locally will be able to give you contact details for a duty NHS dentist who will look after you at NHS rates. The number to ring for this service is 0845 602 5238.

This is, incidentally, another reason why it is so important that you help the receptionists by giving them a rough idea of why you need to come in when you make your appointment. We really do want to get you in to see the right person as quickly as possible, especially if you are in pain. It's frustrating and annoying for everyone if you end up seeing someone who can't deal with your problem.

Talking of helping the receptionist, please don't forget to ask for a longer appointment if you have more than one problem to deal with. Our ten minute slots are intended to be adequate for the doctor to sort out a normal, single problem. If you have two or three problems to address – or something that might be complicated – please ask for a double or even a treble appointment. The main reason that the doctors sometimes get behind and patients end up twiddling their thumbs in the waiting room for ages, is that someone has brought in a shopping-list of issues in the hope that they can all be sorted in ten minutes. Sorry, but that just isn't realistic.

If anyone is feeling generous at present, we are collecting money towards a new defibrillator for the surgery. There are now automatic defibrillators available which work out if someone needs to be shocked and at what power. That's much better than the terrible old machine that we got rid of a few years ago because nobody could work out how to use it any more. (The rumour that it went to a car-boot sale is totally untrue. The doctors wouldn't let me take it.) Anyway, the new one that we want to buy comes with full training and will do the job properly and automatically if anyone is unfortunate enough to need it. The British Heart Foundation is very kindly helping out with a good part of the cost, but any other contributions, which can be left at reception, would be very gratefully received.

These days, we get a lot more requests than we used to from solicitors and other specialist legal firms for copies of patients' notes, usually following an injury or accident for which some sort of compensation is being sought. Just a small word of warning about these requests.

If you sign an authority for copies of your notes to be released, it's worth checking just how far back the legal people intend to go. Usually, when we get a request, it asks us to supply all notes right back to when you were born, not just since the incident occurred. Everything in your past, however personal or embarrassing is then open to scrutiny by the lawyers or, more likely, their staff. So, if you don't really fancy someone trawling all through your medical past, it is worth specifying boundaries for them and making sure they are agreed in writing before you sign the authority, otherwise everything will be laid bare.

Don't leave your tools in your van overnight

Essex Police is warning trades-people not to leave tools and other valuable kit in their vehicles overnight. Apart from the value of the property stolen, victims of this type of crime also have to contend with the disruption to their work and possible loss of earnings.

"Ideally vans should be kept in a locked garage overnight, but if this is not possible all valuable and easily portable items should be removed from the vehicle as a matter of routine and kept somewhere safe and secure.

"If the vehicle has to be left outside, it is best parked with the rear doors close to a wall making them impossible to open fully. The vehicle should also be fitted with an appropriate alarm system and a strong, secure box or cage for valuable, easily transportable items."

Mounted unit's skills recognised at parade

Essex Police officers from the reinstated mounted unit have had their specialist training and qualifications officially recognised at a passing out parade.

Bike Safe event

Riders are invited to attend the Bike Safe launch being held on Sunday, April 27, 2008 at Millfields in Burnham. They will be able to have an assessed ride on a number of new demonstration machines and have a look around the trade stands attending. Any riders should visit the website or ring Sgt Mick Green on 01245 240600 extension 480520.

Be bogus caller aware

Essex Police is asking residents to be on their guard when answering the door to callers. There are many different kinds of bogus caller scams in operation at any given time. The list is as endless as the human imagination. But we can deter bogus callers by not making it easy for them.

S. George's School

Preparations are now well in hand for the celebration of the 125th birthday of the school to be held in April. On Friday 22nd April, there is to be a Thanksgiving Service in S George's church at 11.00am at which the Bishop of Chelmsford will be present. A particular welcome will be made to all old pupils of the school who attend. Other activities are being arranged which will be announced in the next issue. Pupils are to be given a commemorative gift, and Mr John Appleby is preparing an interesting leaflet on the history of the school.

Brownies

It is wonderful, the floor of the hut is dry even after all the rain. Mr Peter Hills, County Standard Newspapers, visited us in January to present the cheque. It was raining hard of course. We were expecting him at 5.30pm but the time passed and no visitor came. Then at 6.40 a photographer arrived who assured us that Mr Hills would arrive at any moment. We arranged ourselves suitably; Eleanor was perched on the back of a chair which proved to be too uncomfortable. We sang songs and entertained the photographer. At 7 o'clock the parents arrived and it was decided to use a dummy cheque for presentation, which Mrs Henderson provided. Just at the crucial moment in stumbled a decidedly wet and muddy Mr Hills. He had been searching the area since 5.40pm. So the photographer worked very quickly and went away as he had another assignment. Mr Hills said that the usually made a little speech but declined to do so that night. We said we would ask him back when the hut was finished, loo and all, and he jokingly (?) replied 'In two years time?'. So hopefully this summer we shall have an Event.

LETTERS

I was interested to read the item from Tudor Smith in the February 'Messenger'. Although we did not live in Little Bromley, my sister, Sylvia, and myself lived near Tudor and Hugh's grandmother in Oxford Road, Mistley.

We remember quite well their Mum and Dad and can picture Elizabeth in her nurse's uniform and Worthy on his bike and can recall the boys being born.

CRAFTS FOR MOTHERING SUNDAY OR EASTER

Flower Basket

You need:

Basket: 18" x 24" Heavy coloured or white paper
Flowers: Make 2 each from 3 different coloured sheets paper
Leaves: Green paper
Pritt stick
Scissors
Hole Punch (Optional)

Instructions:

Cut heavy paper into approximately a 16" circle with a 7" circle drawn in the middle. The inner circle will be the basket bottom. Trim area around this into 1" radiating strips. Bend radiating strips up at dotted lines to begin to form basket side.

Cut about eight 1" x 24" strips out of the same paper. Beginning close to the bottom of basket, weave one of these strips in and out of the radiating strips all the way around the basket. Cut off or add extra piece to complete first woven level.

Secure ends with glue. Weave two or three more levels. Fold or cut excess radiating strips even with the top level.

To make the handle, wrap one of the pre-cut strips (the core) with another pre-cut strip as shown:

Secure ends with glue. Continue with additional strips until the handle core is covered. Trim ends. Glue to inside of basket.

Cut out flowers and some leaves. Bend petals up slightly at edges. This will add depth to the flowers. Use a small dot of glue in the centre of each piece to secure. Punch out small circles with a standard whole punch for flower centres.

Glue the flowers around the basket. Glue on leaves, tucking them under flower petals.
